

Leading practitioners of intellectual property law, Sterne Kessler Goldstein Fox makes its home in a modern office tower atop a 1940 art deco style bus terminal in Washington, D.C. Bold combinations of rich red lacquer and hardwood with warm tones and a distinctive grain, create a dynamic workplace for employees and visitors. These colors and materials are featured in Highline credenzas.

Above and left: Highline, one high credenza, figured walnut veneer with custom stain, red polyester drawer fronts, polished chrome base. Highline three high credenza with cool drawer, shown right.